

A Case-control comparisons by disease

B Multiple-sclerosis sensitivity analyses

Dark bars: Benjamini–Hochberg $q < 0.05$ (* within each cohort's comparison family); pale bars: not significant; † uncorrected $p < 0.05$ only. NAWM, normal-appearing white matter; WM, white matter; BA9, Brodmann area 9. Cohorts differ in tissue compartment, sample size and processing; the display is descriptive and the values are not pooled.